

THE DAILY STAR

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

Probably clear or fair the next 24 hours.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

MILWAUKEE VALLEY will be inspected next week by the Board of Health.

THE contract for furnishing surgical instruments to the Board of Health was awarded, yesterday, to Mr. Max Woelker.

THE Park Fund, according to a statement of the Finance Committee, amounts to $107,169.50; of this, however, belongs to the Grosbeck endowment.

A meeting of the Colored Baptist Association, Western Division, will be held at Lockland, next Sunday. The C. E. & D. R. will run a special train at 8:15 cents for the round trip.

A little German boy living at Mr. Groene's house, on Fifth street, west of John, about three o'clock yesterday afternoon, while sliding down on a banister, missed his hold and fell, suffering a broken leg.

THAT antediluvian specimen of humanity of the gay John Henry style, and of red necktie fame, who is himself an officer, has at length abandoned the wear of his red necktie and assumed the more manly color of black. 'Tis well.

H. CUTTER, who lives at Reading, was arrested night before last about ten o'clock, and bound over to the Common Pleas Court. Cutter is said to have nearly knocked the head off his son Joseph, and also nearly cut his hand off.

THE Trustees of the Cincinnati Southern railroad yesterday awarded the contract for the construction of the foundations and masonry for the new bridge over the river to Smith, Dandridge & Co., of Baltimore, Maryland, at their bid of $148,820.

MR. HENRY LEHNKREMER, with John Shillito & Co., has just returned from a lengthy visit to our Eastern watering places, including Long Branch and Saratoga. Sea bathing, yachting, etc., has had an exhilarating effect on Henry, and he returns to business fully prepared for the fall campaign.

THE Hayes and Young Club of the Seventeenth Ward have effected a permanent organization, and last night elected the following officers: President, Lewis E. Voight; Vice President, J. F. Blackburn; Secretary, H. H. Tate; Treasurer, W. H. Tice.

THE recently purchased animals for the Zoological Garden arrived yesterday at Cumminsville and were transported to their destined places. The collection is in splendid condition, and among them are some of the finest specimens ever sent from Europe.

THE following officers were elected by the Landers Dancing Academy last evening, at the Opera House: President, J. Gabogin; Vice President, W. Hecher; Secretary, W. Gordon; Treasurer, J. Runk. Dancing Committee—W. Hecher, J. Gunklanich, J. Wimmer.

DR. M. LAUFER, day before yesterday, while asleep in his store on Apple street, twenty-fourth ward, was robbed of a wallet containing about $20 and articles valuable only to himself. The theft was committed in a very short time, Mr. Lauffer having slept only fifteen minutes.

THE military will take part in the opening-day procession of the Exposition. The regulars from Newport will lead the column, and a few outside organizations will follow. Other military societies desiring to participate in the parade must apply to Colonel W. L. Robinson.

THE Committee on the Dadds proposition reported to the Park Commissioners in favor of accepting the same, and that it will cost $1,541.25 for the avenue opposite Dadds' tract. The approach to Kemper lane bridge will cost $483.75, making a grand total of $1,985. The committee was authorized to proceed with the work.

THE Milk Inspector, Mr. Ebersole, was instructed by the Board of Health, yesterday afternoon, to report the names of all milk vendors who feed stock exclusively on slop food. Further, that the names of such milk vendors who sell unhealthily or watered milk be published in the papers—grocers who sell the same to be included in the publication.

THE Fair at Florence, Ky., was the opening day of the Florence Fair at Florence, Ky., and a large number of visitors were in attendance. The fair will continue for several days longer, and no one should fail to pay a visit, as plenty of enjoyment is afforded. The exhibitors were not contented to display domestic articles, vegetables and farming implements, but even in these the display was both large and good. To the Champion Reaper and Mower Company were awarded the largest premium for the best mowing machine, and to John Curtis, of Cincinnati, for the best top-buggy. Soloto won the race in five heats for the $500 purse. This was divided into three premiums of $250, $100 and $50, for horses that have never made a mile in less than three minutes. Huattress and Nellie were the only competitors who were entered for the race. The best time was 1:57. The $50 purse was won by Fanny, in three heats.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE—Sheridan & Mack's combination drew only a moderate sized audience last evening. Though the play of itself is not of the very best, some of the individual acting, and especially that of Miss Belle Howitt and Walter Bray, was very good. Mr. Turner's policeman was a neat bit of satire that was highly appreciated by the audience.

Sheridan & Mack matinee this afternoon.

WOOD'S THEATER—The Troupadours played to an appreciative audience last evening. This troupe possesses several very good actors, among whom Mr. Salisbury ranks first; but "Patekwork," either with regard to his own intrinsic merits or his exhibit of acting, will not bear analysis. The comedy of "Sailing Under False Colors" is worth seeing.

GULICK'S GRAND CENTRAL—This house drew a very good audience last night as usual. The performance was not especially remarkable, though the acting of the little Grinnell children was very pleasing.

THE NATIONAL—Old Drury was crowded last evening, in fact the variety shows did fair to do a large share of the business this week. As long as the house is under the present management it will always have its share.

STURMAN CONLEY, a lawyer well-known throughout this city, died yesterday afternoon at his residence No. 348 West Third street. Mr. Conley, for some time had been suffering from dropsy, and for the last three weeks was confined to his bed. He was fifty-two years old and leaves a wife and two children. His loss is mourned by a host of friends.

What they think of our Mayor.

Here is what a Philadelphia paper, of the 2d inst., says of His Honor Mayor Johnston:

"We were greatly pleased with Mayor Johnston and his official friends, who are all gentlemen of education and breeding."

"Mr. Johnston impressed us most delightfully. He is a gentleman of ready and fine intelligence, and thoroughly up in the affairs of the day. So well is he informed that he spoke correctly of our public men—particularly of Senator Cameron, Gov. Hartranft and Mayor Holzey, as if he had known them intimately for years."

"Mr. Johnston alluded to our Centennial in glowing terms—to our Public Schools—to our noble Park—to the industries and resources of the Commonwealth, and to the ability and patriotism of our public men."

"Mr. Johnston is a most engaging gentleman, and his official company is worthy of our best and most constant attention."

"We are sorry that their visit is all too brief. They should remain a week at least."
